

1 Introduction

Over the past year, I have been researching scheduling related to offshore windfarm projects; the installation, maintenance, and disassembling of wind-farms in various Seas, primarily the North Sea. The installation and disassembling projects can often take more than 18 months, and the lifespan of such farms is about 30 years, over which maintenance has to be done.

2 Literature

3 Simulator

4 Conclusion